2010 D'Vine Wine Event

April 17, 2010 • Greensboro, NC

2010 D'Vine Wine Event

The NC Medical Society Alliance and local affiliate Greater Greensboro Society of Medicine Alliance have joined together to host the 2010 D'Vine Wine Event on April 17 at the Revolution Mill Studio in Greensboro. All proceeds from the event are dedicated to local and state health projects and nursing scholarships. Proceeds from the event will also support efforts to purchase automated external defibrillators (AED) for Guilford Public Schools in need of the life-saving equipment.

North Carolina Medical Society Alliance and the Greater Greensboro Society of Medicine Alliance

Organized in 1923, the North Carolina Medical Society Alliance (NCMS Alliance) is a 501 (c)(3) charitable volunteer organization representing more than 1,500 physician spouses and physicians dedicated to improving the health and quality of life of North Carolinians through community service, advocacy and fundraising aimed at promoting better public health. As a partner to the North Carolina Medical Society, the NCMS Alliance is also committed to supporting physicians and the future of medicine. Membership in the NCMS Alliance contributes to important state programs and provides a voice on issues impacting health in North Carolina.

Founded in 1928, the Greater Greensboro Society of Medicine Alliance (GGsMA) has over 250 members. Through their active involvement in issues of health education and promotion, the Alliance is widely recognized for its long tradition of promoting community health in the Greater Greensboro area. Members are spouses of physician members of the Greater Greensboro Society of Medicine. The GGsMA is a local component of the NCMS Alliance.
